Furthermore, in order for the Company to comply with the regulatory framework it has to assess and determine which product and/or service are suitable for each client in relevance to his/her knowledge and experience as referred to Section 3.1. Therefore, you will be formally assessed by completing the ‘Appropriateness Test’ during your onboarding procedure prior to providing the Client with investment services.

2.2. Know Your Client (KYC) identification and verification procedure - Upon registration, clients are required to submit a Proof of Identity (“POI”) and Proof of Residence (“POR”) within 30 days, otherwise the clients’ account will be suspended and inactivated.

Accounts with valid POI and POR will be screened against the World Compliance database, and if there is no suspicion, the account will be set to fully verified.

Should the 30th day fall on a day which is not a business day in South Africa or where the company considers this day not to be a business day of the Company, including but not limited to, weekends or local public holiday, or the company, at its sole discretion and should it deem viable, offer the client an extension to the 30th day, then the Company will, in its sole and absolute discretion, consider the last business day preceding the expiry of the 30th day as the deadline by when all your account details and documents had to be verified. Meanwhile, for client who does not deposit with Rynat Capital (Pty) Ltd as well as the verification of the Client's identity is not completed within 30 days, then any open or pending orders will be closed at the current rate at the end of the 30th day from the initial contact. 2.5 If the verification of the Client's identity is not completed within 30 days of the initial contact, the Company may contact you in order to complete the verification procedure.

2.6 If the verification of the Client's identity is not completed within the prescribed timeframe, then any open or pending orders will be closed at the current rate at the end of the 30th day from the initial contact.

- ii. Any losses will be deducted from the returned funds. Funds will be transferred back to you net of any transfer fees, charges or other deductions incurred by us.

2.7 The Company, in its sole and absolute discretion and without giving any reason, therefore, retains the right to decline any account opening application so as to be in accordance with applicable laws and restrictions. By accepting this Client Agreement, you give your explicit consent to each and every aspect of this procedure.

2.8 Definition and Treatment of Unfunded Accounts (Demo Accounts)

2.8.1. For the avoidance of doubt, any trading account that has not been funded by the Client with an initial deposit shall be deemed a Demo Account. A Demo Account is provided solely for the purpose of demonstrating the functionality of the Company's trading platform and does not constitute a live trading account under this Agreement.

2.8.2. No business relationship, as contemplated under the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act, 2002 (FAIS Act) or the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, 2001 (FICA), shall be considered to exist between the Client and the Company until the Client has (a) made a verified deposit into the trading account, and (b) successfully completed all required identification and verification procedures prescribed by the Company in terms of its regulatory obligations.

2.8.3. The Company shall not be obliged to retain, disclose, or maintain any records, transactional history, or trading data relating to Demo Accounts, as such accounts do not represent genuine trading activity or investment exposure.

2.8.4. Any profits, losses, or balances generated within a Demo Account shall have no legal or financial validity and shall not be claimable by the Client. The Company reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to suspend, reset, or delete any Demo Account and its related data without prior notice.

2.8.5. In the event that a Demo Account maintains open trading positions and no login or trading activity, including, but not limited to, accessing the platform, viewing market data, modifying or adjusting positions, or interacting with any functionality of the trading application, has occurred for a continuous period of seven (7) calendar days, the Company's system shall automatically close all open positions and may thereafter terminate or deactivate the account without prior notice.
