5. Other Matters of Importance

- a. In terms of the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, 2001 FSP is obliged to report any suspicious and unusual transactions that may facilitate money laundering.
- b. It is important that you are absolutely sure that the product and transactions meet your needs and that you feel you have all the information you need before making a decision.
- c. The FSP has a suitable Professional Indemnity and Fidelity Insurance Cover in place in accordance with FAIS.
- d. Waiver of rights: You are hereby advised that no representatives of the provider or any other person may ask you, or offer any inducement to you, to waive any right or benefit conferred on you by or in terms of any provision of the FAIS Act. Note further that no representative has a right to enter into any contractual obligation on the client's behalf, or to restructure portfolios without the client's prior written consent.
- e. The client authorizes the FSP to access any relevant information required pertaining to the client to enable the FSP to adequately provide the necessary financial service or advice. Any client information obtained by our representatives shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties unless otherwise required by a legal obligation or with your prior consent.

6. Financial Services and Products

Our Representatives are only authorized to provide services and advice in the product categories mentioned below only. Should the client require services outside of our license approval, they may approach other licensed third parties authorized to render services in the desired product categories.

As an Authorised Financial Services Provider, the FSP has a Category I License issued by the Financial Services Conduct Authority in terms of FAIS Act 2002, to provide advisory and or intermediary services in respect of the following financial products:

	Financial Product	Advice	Intermediary Service
	CATEGORY I
1.8	Shares	X	X
1.11	Warrants, certificates, or other instruments	X	X
1.13	Derivative instrument	X	X

7. Conflicts of Interest

In accordance with the FSP’s Conflicts of Interest Management Policy, the FSP places a high priority on its clients’ interests. As conflicts of interest could undermine the integrity and professionalism of the FSP and its employees, any potential or recognized instance must be identified as early as possible. Potential conflicts of interest are inherent in any business and therefore it is not the aim of the FSP to avoid all conflicts. If conflict situations cannot be avoided, the FSP will manage equitably and in the client’s interest as an integral part of the FSP’s duties and obligations. The FSP maintains an active Conflicts of Interest Management Policy, which is available on our website (www.xtrendspeed.com) or on request.

8. Product Supplier/Liquidity Provider/ODP

The FSP has only one Liquidity Provider namely GBE.

9. Commissions/Revenue

The maximum commission that Rynat Capital earns as commission on a monthly basis from the Liquidity Provider (GBE) is 30% of all the commissions generated by Rynat Capital. This is the total of Rynat Capital’s revenue as an Intermediary. The percentage drops as the revenue increases beyond USD500,000.00 per month.

10. Client Understanding & Confirmation

1. The client agrees to provide the FSP with the necessary information and written consent required to effect the client’s mandate.
2. The client consents to provide the FSP with any information relating to the client’s change in financial circumstance to enable the FSP to make the necessary adjustments to the financial plan.
3. The client understands that they have an obligation to provide the FSP with accurate information, material facts, or statements relating to the completion of any transaction and that they assume the sole responsibility for any damage incurred as a result of their failure to accurately disclose information.
4. It shall be the sole responsibility of the client to decide whether a product or financial decision is appropriate for their needs, objectives, and circumstances, should the client elect to pursue a transaction contrary to the recommendation of the FSP.
5. I confirm via an electronic signature that I have read this document and have received a copy of this notice.
